

HIKING IN MOUNT REVELSTOKE NATIONAL PARK

Gather your family and circle an ancient tree trunk in the world's only inland cedar rainforest at Giant Cedars Boardwalk. Alongside the Skunk Cabbage Boardwalk, wetland plants as tall as children surround the trail. At the historic Nels Nelsen area, let your gaze wander upward to the flight path of daring ski-jumpers from a century ago.

Take the Meadows in the Sky Parkway and stand on a mountain summit! The subalpine meadows at the peak explode into colour every August as the wildflower season reaches its apex in Mount Revelstoke. You'll enjoy astonishing views of the snow-capped Selkirk Mountains and the Monashee Range on the western horizon. The summit area and the backcountry can be explored on ten trails, including the classic Columbia Mountains hikes to Eva Lake and Jade Lakes.

Mount Revelstoke is a hiker's park. First time or novice hikers can easily access the subalpine backcountry from the Meadows in the Sky Parkway. For many visitors, Mount Revelstoke offers the first chance to stand on the summit of a mountain. In the valleys far below, trails introduce visitors to the inland rainforest of the Columbia Mountains. Use the trail chart below to choose a hike...

Plan Ahead and Prepare

Giant Cedars and Skunk Cabbage Boardwalks and Inspiration Woods Trail are safe, gentle rainforest valleys that are the first to open each season. Lindmark and Summit Trails begin in the rainforest on the lower mountain and climb high into the sub-alpine zone. Koo Koo Sint, First Footsteps, Fire Lookout and Eagle Knoll trails are all short trails radiating from the summit area of Mount Revelstoke. There are short steep sections in these trails. Eva, Miller and Jade Lakes trails are backcountry trails. Hikers should be prepared for all conditions, including snow in August.

- Remember, you are responsible for your own safety.
- Get advice from the Parks Canada office in Revelstoke or the Meadows in the Sky Parkway Welcome Station.
 - Study trail descriptions and maps before starting.
 - Check the weather forecast and current trail conditions, www.pc.gc.ca/revelstoke.
 - Choose a trail suitable for the least experienced member in your group.
 - Pack adequate food, water clothing, maps and gear.
 - Carry a first aid kit and bear spray.
 - Tell somebody where you're going, when you'll be back and who to call if you don't return.
 - Travel with a friend or group.
 - Be prepared for emergencies and changes in weather.

Stay on Maintained Trails

- To prevent trail damage stay on the trail and avoid shortcuts.

- Backcountry
- A park pass and a backcountry camping permit is required for any overnight trip.
 - Please confirm with staff at the Meadows in the Sky Parkway Welcome Station on the availability of sites.
 - Open fires are not permitted

Fishing
A National Park fishing licence is required.

Safety

Emergency Dispatch Number: Call 1-877-852-3100. Tell dispatchers you have a backcountry emergency in Mount Revelstoke National Park and require assistance. Cell phone reception is unreliable.

- Keep Wildlife Wild, and Yourself Safer
- Travel in groups and make noise to avoid surprise encounters.
 - Do not feed, touch, or approach wildlife. Stay at least 30 to 50 metres away from most animals, and 100 metres away from bears.
 - Carry bear spray and know how to use it.
 - Pets must be on a leash at all times.

- Leave What You Find, and Take What You Bring
- Pack out all garbage, including diapers and food waste.
 - Dispose of human waste at least 100 m from any water source. Bury solid human waste in a hole 15cm deep. Pack out your toilet paper.
 - Natural and cultural resources such as rocks, fossils, artifacts, horns, antlers, wildflowers, berries, mushrooms and nests are protected by law and must be left undisturbed for others to discover and enjoy.

Meadows in the Sky Parkway

The Meadows in the Sky Parkway climbs 1600 metres and 26 km to the beautiful subalpine wildflower meadow of Mount Revelstoke National Park. Along the way you can take advantage of several viewpoints to admire the magnificent scenery in and around Mount Revelstoke. When you arrive at the top, the Meadows in the Sky summit area offers rare mountain-top hiking, photography, strolling and picnicking opportunities. The Parkway is kept open as snow allows. You can usually expect to reach the summit from late June to late September. The Parkway is a steep, hard-surfaced mountain road with sixteen switchbacks. Parking at the top is very limited during the peak season. Buses and trailers are not permitted on the Parkway. Trailers may be parked at the Nels Nelsen Historic Area (watch for the trailer parking sign). The Parkway is closed to traffic overnight, and the gate at the base is locked. As hours change with the seasons, check posted Parkway hours at the welcome station.
