TRAIL RECIPE

by Erin Joudrey

Take hard working people, add knowledgeable experts, share some tools, combine with dirt, sweat and laughter, and 'voilà' a trail is born.

The Lake Superior National Marine Conservation Area recently partnered with international and local associations to expand local trail building knowledge.

SPENDING A SUNDAY IN THE PAST

by Jeanette Cowen

Fine china, finger foods and fancy hats were the highlights of this summer's Heritage Teas at the Sault Ste. Marie Canal. Held Sundays in August, at the beautiful and historic Superintendent's Residence, the teas featured music from the 1920s and 30s and Parks Canada staff and volunteers in period costume.

SPIRITS WITH STORIES TO TELL

by Frances Robb

Ever wondered what life was like 200 years ago? The annual Ghost Walk at Fort St. Joseph allows visitors and volunteers to dive into the past and become part of a vibrant, bustling community, whose soldiers, Aboriginals and settlers formed an alliance which drastically changed the outcome of the War of 1812 and Canada.
