

EXPANSION OF NAHANNI NATIONAL PARK RESERVE

We want your views on possible park boundary options

On behalf of Dehcho First Nations and Parks Canada, the Nahanni Expansion Working Group has finished feasibility studies on the proposed expansion of Nahanni National Park Reserve. Public meetings are now being planned to present options for an expanded park boundary to First Nations, the public and key stakeholders.

You are invited to attend the upcoming public open house in Ottawa to let us know what you think of the park boundary options. Maps and information detailing the boundary options will be available at the public open house, which will occur as follows:

Ottawa (Ontario)

Thursday, November 1

5:30 PM - 8:30 PM

Presentation at 7:00 pm

Ottawa Public Library

Main Library - Auditorium

120 Metcalf Street

Ottawa, ON

Come and join us!

Your input is important, and we need your feedback to help form the final boundary recommendation that the Nahanni Expansion Working Group will make to Dehcho First Nations and Parks Canada.

If you have questions, please call: (867) 872-7956

E-mail: mike.keizer@pc.gc.ca

Parks
Canada

Parcs
Canada

Canada 